FISH HAWKE

Refined living, thoughtfully simplified

Designed for relaxed living, the Fish Hawke offers an efficient footprint that maximizes comfort and livability. Elevated on pilings or adaptable to a crawl space, this plan is well suited for narrow homesites while maintaining a strong connection to outdoor living.

The main living and dining areas flow naturally from the front porch, creating an inviting space for everyday routines or casual gatherings. A privately positioned primary suite provides a quiet retreat, while additional bedrooms offer flexibility for guests or workspace, creating a home that feels both elevated and effortlessly livable.
